

DEDICATION

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES
HOSPITAL,

TUESDAY, JUNE 7TH, 1887.

FROM 3:00 P. M. TO 9:00 P. M.

IRVING D. WILTROUT, M. D., FOUNDER.

HON. JAMES JOHNSTON,
WILLIAM JOHNSTON, ESQ.,
IRVING D. WILTROUT, M. D.,
PROPRIETORS.

HUDSON, ST. CROIX COUNTY, WISCONSIN.

The Public Cordially Invited.

PROGRAMME.

At 3:00 P. M., procession will leave corner of Second and Walnut Streets and proceed to grounds in the following order:

Great Western Band.

Hudson City Guards.

Mayor and City Council.

Officers of the State Medical Society.

Officers and Members of the Inter-State Medical Society and Medical Fraternity.

Public Speakers.

Founder, Proprietors and Officers of Hospital.

Members of the Press.

Committee of Arrangements.

Citizens in Carriages.

After a brief period devoted to inspection of buildings and grounds formal exercises will begin with—

PROGRAMME.

Music, - Seibert's Great Western Band

Prayer, Rev. C. A. VanAnda, D.D., Minneapolis

Presentation Address,
Dr. C. H. Hunter, Minneapolis

Objects and Aims of Institution,
Dr. Irving D. Wilttrout

Music.

Dedication Address, Hon. H. A. Taylor, Hudson

Poem by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes,
(Written for the occasion,) read by
Pres. Cyrus Northrup,
Minn. State University

Music.

At 7:30 lunch will be served in the spacious Dining Hall, to conclude with Music and Toasts.

